

ARCA National Conference 2017 (Draft Agenda)

Thursday 9th November – Day 1
Start	Finish	Length	Session Type
7.30	9.00	90	Executive Breakfast	Equifax Executive Breakfast, speaker to be announced soon
7.00	9.30	90	Registration
9.00	9.20	20	Welcome and Overview	Welcome Address, Mike Laing , Executive Chairman, ARCA
9.20	10.00	40	Opening Keynote	The Changing Future of Credit Risk <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The current environment Challenges facing the industry Future role of Credit Risk
10.00	10.45	45	Plenary	2008 vs. 2016 – Economic Differences or Similarities. Should we be Warned? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What has changed since 2008 and what hasn't New developments / challenges in the current market What to watch out for
10.45	11.15	30	Morning tea
11.15	12.00	45	Plenary	The Future of Bank Risk Management, Gabriele Vigo , Senior Partner, Global Banking Practice, McKinsey & Company, Malaysia <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Rising customer expectations from changing technology Impact of big data and advanced analytics New risks on the horizon Credit risk responses to emerging trends
12.00	12.45	45	Plenary	Changing Borrower Demographics Changing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What implications do these changes bring for credit management? Mark McCrindle , Award-winning social researcher, best-selling author, and influential thought leader
12.45	2.00	75	Lunch
			Legal & Compliance Breakout	Technical Breakout	Strategic Breakout
2.00	2.45	45	Breakouts	New APRA powers relating to non-bank lenders and how they are likely to shape thinking about credit risk, Toby Coburn , Consultant, Herbert Smith Freehills	Mortgage residential survey results and implications <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What is the Mortgage residential survey How is it used by APRA and why is it important? Key learnings and advice for mortgage lenders 	The housing market outlook <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Current market performance Hot spots and laggards Areas of interest / concern Prognosis for the coming year
2.45	3.30	45		New Payments Platform	Internet of Things (IoT) - what fraud and risk measures do we need to consider for the future <ul style="list-style-type: none"> How does the IoT work and how can it benefit lenders What risks are associated with the IoT and how can these be addressed How should Risk Managers embrace the IoT? 	Are Regulators killing (good) old fashioned credit risk decisioning – and is that a bad thing?
3.30	3.50	20	Afternoon tea

3.50	4.30	40	Breakouts	Regulatory reporting requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> How do we deal with the conflicting requirements of different regulatory regimes? Where to next? 	IFRS 9 and what it will mean for day to day lending	Fraud and the FBI <ul style="list-style-type: none"> New developments in fraud What is on the horizon? Strategic cooperation between countries – Five Eyes
4.30	4.40	10	Break (for room change)
4.40	5.30	50	Plenary	What happens if/when CCR is mandated - panel discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Most likely scenario & how to prepare Industry progress towards CCR Hardship and responsible lending update Consumer education rollout
6.30	10.30	240	Pre-dinner drinks & Gala Dinner, Sheraton Grand Mirage

Friday 10th November – Day 2

Start	Finish	Length	Session Type
9.00	9.45	45	Plenary	International panel: What impacts will open data and broader data sharing and utilisation, “big data” and associated technologies, have on credit decisioning, reporting etc. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Data sharing developments from other markets Implications for lenders – in those markets; in Australia Likely developments in Australia and how to prepare for them
9.45	10.30	45	Plenary	CRO special session
10.30	11.00	30		Morning tea
				<table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th></th> <th>Legal & Compliance Breakout</th> <th>Technical Breakout</th> <th>Strategic Breakout</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>11.00</td> <td> ASIC Update </td> <td> Is there room for transactional level data and CCR – are they substitutes or complements? </td> <td> New technologies, new markets <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Leveraging the power of fintechs to provide more affordable credit options for vulnerable consumers Fintech examples operating in Credit Risk Avoiding the biggest obstacles to seeing results from Fintech partnerships Leveraging automation Corinne Proske, GM Retail & Online, Good Shepherd Microfinance Luke Howes, CEO, Proviso </td> </tr> <tr> <td>11.45</td> <td> Quo vadis Privacy: Do the findings and recommendations of the Productivity Commission Inquiry into Data Availability and Use indicate a shift in culture and attitude towards Privacy Olga Ganopolsky, General Council, Privacy & Data, Macquarie Group Frances Russell-Matthews, Head of Legal & Company Secretary, Experian Credit Services Andrew Sorenson, Senior Legal Counsel, Regulatory & commercial, Equifax </td> <td> Neural networks and deep learning in the context is risk management – what is it and what examples can add value into different credit life cycles <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What are neural networks How can they impact credit decisioning – in the future? Right now? How should Risk Managers be using them today? </td> <td> Credit bureau optimisation what value and insights do you get from connecting to three credit bureaus <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Value and insights from connecting to multiple credit bureaus Case studies – what can we learn from overseas? Benefits for niche populations, thin files and gaining additional data sources Decisioning strategies, data driven analytics and scorecard development to support multi bureaus </td> </tr> </tbody> </table>		Legal & Compliance Breakout	Technical Breakout	Strategic Breakout	11.00	ASIC Update	Is there room for transactional level data and CCR – are they substitutes or complements?	New technologies, new markets <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Leveraging the power of fintechs to provide more affordable credit options for vulnerable consumers Fintech examples operating in Credit Risk Avoiding the biggest obstacles to seeing results from Fintech partnerships Leveraging automation Corinne Proske, GM Retail & Online, Good Shepherd Microfinance Luke Howes, CEO, Proviso	11.45	Quo vadis Privacy: Do the findings and recommendations of the Productivity Commission Inquiry into Data Availability and Use indicate a shift in culture and attitude towards Privacy Olga Ganopolsky, General Council, Privacy & Data, Macquarie Group Frances Russell-Matthews, Head of Legal & Company Secretary, Experian Credit Services Andrew Sorenson, Senior Legal Counsel, Regulatory & commercial, Equifax	Neural networks and deep learning in the context is risk management – what is it and what examples can add value into different credit life cycles <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What are neural networks How can they impact credit decisioning – in the future? Right now? How should Risk Managers be using them today? 	Credit bureau optimisation what value and insights do you get from connecting to three credit bureaus <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Value and insights from connecting to multiple credit bureaus Case studies – what can we learn from overseas? Benefits for niche populations, thin files and gaining additional data sources Decisioning strategies, data driven analytics and scorecard development to support multi bureaus
	Legal & Compliance Breakout	Technical Breakout	Strategic Breakout
11.00	ASIC Update	Is there room for transactional level data and CCR – are they substitutes or complements?	New technologies, new markets <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Leveraging the power of fintechs to provide more affordable credit options for vulnerable consumers Fintech examples operating in Credit Risk Avoiding the biggest obstacles to seeing results from Fintech partnerships Leveraging automation Corinne Proske, GM Retail & Online, Good Shepherd Microfinance Luke Howes, CEO, Proviso
11.45	Quo vadis Privacy: Do the findings and recommendations of the Productivity Commission Inquiry into Data Availability and Use indicate a shift in culture and attitude towards Privacy Olga Ganopolsky, General Council, Privacy & Data, Macquarie Group Frances Russell-Matthews, Head of Legal & Company Secretary, Experian Credit Services Andrew Sorenson, Senior Legal Counsel, Regulatory & commercial, Equifax	Neural networks and deep learning in the context is risk management – what is it and what examples can add value into different credit life cycles <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What are neural networks How can they impact credit decisioning – in the future? Right now? How should Risk Managers be using them today? 	Credit bureau optimisation what value and insights do you get from connecting to three credit bureaus <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Value and insights from connecting to multiple credit bureaus Case studies – what can we learn from overseas? Benefits for niche populations, thin files and gaining additional data sources Decisioning strategies, data driven analytics and scorecard development to support multi bureaus
12.30	2.00	90	Lunch and Plenary	Allan Sparkes CV, OAM, VA , Deputy Commissioner, Mental Health Commission of NSW; Speaker and Author, Mental Health and Suicide Prevention Advocate beyondblue, Australia Day, Soldier On and Kookaburra Kids Ambassador
				<table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>Optional workshops</th> <th>Workshop 1</th> <th>Workshop 2</th> <th>Workshop 3</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>2.00</td> <td> Credit pricing and regulation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Commissions, flex-commissions, and mortgage broker remuneration Daniel Tirado, Senior Corporate Counsel, Toyota Finance </td> <td> New banking tribunal and the future of EDR </td> <td>TBC</td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	Optional workshops	Workshop 1	Workshop 2	Workshop 3	2.00	Credit pricing and regulation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Commissions, flex-commissions, and mortgage broker remuneration Daniel Tirado, Senior Corporate Counsel, Toyota Finance	New banking tribunal and the future of EDR	TBC
Optional workshops	Workshop 1	Workshop 2	Workshop 3
2.00	Credit pricing and regulation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Commissions, flex-commissions, and mortgage broker remuneration Daniel Tirado, Senior Corporate Counsel, Toyota Finance	New banking tribunal and the future of EDR	TBC
3.30	3.45	15	Conference close													